Starfish Information

 Starfish at QCC!

Starfish is an online tool that helps you stay informed and connected to support your academic success. With Starfish, instructors can:

- notify you if they are concerned about your progress in a course by sending you a flag
- send you kudos if you are doing well
- refer you to the College's support services
- suggest "to-do's" to increase your chances for success

Tutoring Centers - Information

General Tutor Information:

QCC's tutoring centers are located on the second floor of the Harrington Learning Center (HLC) and provide a welcoming and supportive environment with free tutoring for Quinsigamond Community College students. The HLC is open Monday – Saturday when classes are in session. Tutoring is also available at QCC's Downtown and Southbridge campuses; click to the Center websites for location and schedules.

Tutors in The Writing Center, Math Center, and GAA offer students support and resources for navigating technology for their classes, including Blackboard Learn, Starfish, The Q, Qmail, and Smarthinking. Tutors can assist students with accessing course material and campus information necessary for academic success. Support is available for students in online, blended, and web-enhanced courses.

The General Academic Areas (GAA) (222 HLC) offers individualized tutoring by appointment for students in various subject areas other than Math or English. (508) 854-4279. gaa@qcc.mass.edu

GAA website: www.qcc.edu/gaa

The Math Center (206HLC) offers drop-in, one-on-one and small group tutoring for students taking a range of mathematics and related courses. A variety of math-related resources are also available. (508) 854-7487. MathCenter@qcc.mass.edu

The Writing Center (208HLC) offers one-on-one tutoring in reading and writing for any course. Tutoring is also available for ESL, Speech 101, and HUM 101: Critical Thinking. (508) 854-7488. wcinfo@qcc.mass.edu
