Quinsigamond Community College to Hold Graduation Ceremonies Today

LOCATION: QCC Soccer Field, 670 West Boylston Street

DATE: Thursday, May 20

TIME: 4 p.m.

DETAILS: Quinsigamond Community College will graduate 1,031 students at a ceremony on Thursday, May 20, at 4 p.m. The event will take place on campus, under a tent on the athletic field.

Join area dignitaries and legislators as QCC honors students receiving degrees and certificates from the College. Worcester Mayor Joseph O'Brien will be the guest speaker.

In addition, the Southbridge Leadership Team, made up of South County area business and town leaders, will be honored with the Trustees' Citizen's Award from the College. The group was instrumental in the opening of the QCC Southbridge location and in its support in helping to expand educational opportunities to South County residents.
