Title: Participation in Extracurricular Activities Policy
Current Version Approved: [Enter date]
Primary Responsible Office: Enrollment & Student Services

1. Purpose
   This policy provides guidelines for the minimum standards required to participate in activities.

2. Definitions
   For the purposes of this policy, the term “Extracurricular Activities” includes, but is not limited to, intercollegiate and intramural sports, student club activities, and events sponsored by student life.
   “Satisfactory Academic Standing” means not on academic probation (Refer to Page 33 of the Catalog) or disciplinary probation (Refer to Page 77 of the Student Handbook) and current with all college financial obligations.
   “Matriculated” means enrolled in a degree or certificate program of study.

3. Applicability
   This policy applies to all students.

4. Policy
   Quinsigamond provides on-going extracurricular activities for the purpose of complementing students’ academic and personal development. Participation in such activities is a privilege offered to matriculated students who are free from academic or disciplinary probation. Non-matriculated students may participate for a period of 6 months during which they are urged to explore admission to an appropriate program of study.

5. Procedures
   At the beginning of each semester, The Director of Student Life will check eligibility status of students as they apply to participate in student activities and will forward this information to the Vice President of Enrollment & Student Services.

6. Sanctions
   Students not in good standing will be refused admission to extracurricular activities. Attempts to knowingly bypass this policy may result in disciplinary action.

7. Exclusions
   Temporary, short-term exemptions may be granted by the Vice President of Enrollment & Student Services or designee for educational purposes.

8. Interpretation
   Issues of interpretation are to be brought to the V.P. of Enrollment & Student Services
