

NEASC Notice of Public Comment

Quinsigamond Community College (QCC) will undergo a comprehensive evaluation visit November 3-6, 2013, by a team representing the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.

The Commission on Institutions of Higher Education is one of seven accrediting commissions in the United States that provide institutional accreditation on a regional basis. Accreditation is voluntary and applies to the institution as a whole. The Commission, which is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, accredits approximately 240 institutions in the six-state New England region.

QCC has been accredited by the Commission since 1967 and was last reviewed in 2003. Its accreditation by the New England Association encompasses the entire institution.

For the past two years, QCC has been engaged in a process of self-study, addressing the Commission's Standards for Accreditation. An evaluation team will visit the institution to gather evidence that the self-study is thorough and accurate. The team will recommend to the Commission a continuing status for the institution. Following a review process, the Commission itself will take the final action.

The public is invited to submit comments regarding the institution to:

Public Comment on Quinsigamond Community College
Commission on Institutions of Higher Education
New England Association of Schools and Colleges

Public comments must address substantive matters related to the quality of the institution. The Commission cannot settle disputes between individuals and institutions, whether those involve faculty, librarians, students, administrators, or members of other groups. Comments will not be treated as confidential and must include the name, address, and telephone number of the person providing the comments.

Public comments must be received by November 6, 2013. The Commission cannot guarantee that comments received after that date will be considered.
