

How can we actually make positive change in society?

when will we all feel safe?

What are the root causes of hate in our society?

Why study history? How can it benefit us to do so?

Can we change hate?

How do we respond at this moment that will make a difference?

how can we make sure we all count?

When do we get to a place when we all have what we need

How do we change society?

How do we respond to current racial injustice in the U.S.?

If we understand this fear, can we make it better.

How will YOU make a difference?

How do we make things better?

How do we overcome racism in America?

What is democracy?

What keeps you going when nothing seems to change?

What's the cost to us, of all this division?

What can I do?

Claims from "Together, You Can Redeem the Soul of Our Nation" by civil rights leader John Lewis

The question that he posed is the rationale behind hatred in the heart of a person that would make them take the life of another individual.
