

A Great Opportunity for English Students QCC's new Liberal Arts English Option

- Credits are transferable to all Massachusetts state universities and UMass campuses.

Our faculty specializes in

- American & British literary traditions
- World literature
- Literary genres
- Creative Writing
- Professional writing
- African American literature

By reading and analyzing literature you learn about the creative process and human motivation, preparing you for leadership roles in fields such as law, technology, and health.

- Learn the skills of close reading, advanced writing, and effective communication.
- Look for a career in publishing, public relations, advertising, or teaching. Jobs include copywriter, columnist, commentator, critic, editor, production assistant, public relations representative, reporter, correspondent, technical writer or writer/author for non-profit organizations.

For more information contact
Professor Kenneth Wong – kwong@qcc.mass.edu or
Professor Sheila Booth – sbooth@qcc.mass.edu