

Worcester business leaders fund new scholarship at Nichols College

DUDLEY — A new scholarship at Nichols College to benefit transfer students from Quinsigamond Community College has been created through contributions from two long-term Worcester business and community leaders.

R. Joseph Salois, owner and president of Atlas Distributing Inc., and Robert Vaudreuil, retired president and CEO of The Protector Group, have committed to sponsor the Nichols Connect Scholarship, which will assist QCC graduates who pursue a Nichols degree.

“As the scholarship’s name implies, this effort will connect our institutions in a meaningful way and enhance our longstanding partnership with QCC through the Affordable Business and Leadership Education initiative,” said Bill Boffi, Nichols College vice president for enrollment. “We are grateful to Joe Salois and Bob Vaudreuil for strengthening our bridge to Worcester and extending Nichols’ exceptional educational opportunities to its students.”

Students enrolled in a minimum of six credits at Nichols are eligible for the Nichols Connect Scholarship. Award amounts will vary based on status as a resident student, undergraduate evening or commuter student, or student in the Affordable Business and Leadership Education initiative.

“From my experience as a non-traditional student, I understand the motivation of students who want to take their education to the next level and the importance of a scholarship that offers them the means to reach it,” said Salois, a 1998 graduate and past trustee of Nichols College.

Vaudreuil, a 1977 graduate of Nichols College and former chair of its Board of Trustees, added, “I see this scholarship as a win for QCC, for Nichols, and for the Worcester business community which will continue to be strengthened by the opportunities and educational resources provided by this partnership.”
