5 Things You Need to Know Today in Worcester - August 23
by Tom Marino | August 23, 2022

In today’s daily 5 Things You Need to Know feature, ThisWeekinWorcester.com explores five important items and stories that Worcester and Central Massachusetts residents should keep a close eye on.

These five things can cover a whole range of subjects and issues that we feel are pertinent to understanding what’s going on in the city and the cities and towns surrounding Worcester.

In today’s edition - Tuesday, August 23 - QCC is hosting a forum with the candidates for Attorney General, Hanover Theatre opens registration for its fall courses, Chashu Ramen + Izakaya launches a special Wednesday pop-up menu, gas prices drop 11 cents and Dunkin' releases its first at-home seasonal creamer.

QCC to Host Attorney General Candidates Forum on Wednesday

The Worcester County Bar Association and Quinsigamond Community College (QCC) are hosting a candidates’ forum for the Massachusetts Attorney General on Wednesday, Aug. 24 at 4:30 PM on QCC’s main campus at 670 West Boylston Street in Worcester in the Hebert Auditorium.

This free forum is open to the public and is the first that will take place with all four Massachusetts Attorney General candidates. The Democratic candidates are former Boston City Councilor Andrea Campbell, Attorney Shannon Liss-Riordan, and Deputy General Counsel for the U.S. Department of Commerce, Quentin Palfrey. The Republican candidate is Attorney Jay McMahon.

The Massachusetts primary election will occur on September 6, 2022, with the general election on November 8, 2022. Current Attorney General Maura Healey who has held the office since 2015, is running for Governor of Massachusetts.