

5 Things You Need to Know Today in Worcester - September 22

by Tom Marino | September 22, 2022

In today's daily 5 Things You Need to Know feature, ThisWeekinWorcester.com explores five important items and stories that Worcester and Central Massachusetts residents should keep a close eye on.

These five things can cover a whole range of subjects and issues that we feel are pertinent to understanding what's going on in the city and the cities and towns surrounding Worcester.

In today's edition - Thursday, September 22 - Holy Cross is hosting a forum on hunger with congressional representative Jim McGovern, Worcester DPW is hosting an Urban Forestry Master Plan meeting today, join in on the first ever Women Veterans' Family Day, QCC hosts a ribbon cutting for its HomePlate Food Pantry and the Worcester Bravehearts announce a fall clinic at the Bancroft School.

AD

QCC Hosts Ribbon Cutting for HomePlate Food Pantry

Quinsigamond Community College (CCC) hosts a ribbon cutting for its HomePlate Food Pantry and Resource Center Friday, Sept. 23. The event takes place at the QCC main campus at 670 West Boylston Street in Worcester.

The HomePlate Food Pantry and Resource Center at QCC was developed to support students dealing with food insecurity, as well as other critical life needs.

The center accepts donations at the drop-box located outside the Food Pantry, located in the basement of the administration building, Room B65A. Its most-needed items are:

- On the go snacks such as granola bars, trail mix, etc.
- Cereal
- Personal Hygiene Items
- Diapers (all sizes)
- Pancake/Baking Mixes