Raymond Arnold Winbush aka Tikari Bioko is an American-African scholar and activist known for his systems-thinking approaches to understanding the impact of racism/white supremacy on the global African community. His writings, consultations, and research have been instrumental in understanding developmental stages in Black males, public policy and its connection to compensatory justice, relationships between Black males and females, infusion of African studies into school curricula, and the impact of hip-hop culture on the contemporary American landscape. (source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Raymond_Winbush)

To Join the event please visit www.qcc.edu/diversity/diversity-events or contact Selina Boria at sboria@qcc.mass.edu for Zoom information.

Persons in need of accommodation for this event are invited to contact Selina Boria by 2/11/22 at 508-854-4368, by email at sboria@qcc.mass.edu or by Sorenson video phone 508-502-7647